

SHORELINE EARLY ALERT

Ride the wave and refer students to come SEA us!

SEA is designed to help students who are encountering difficulty in the pursuit of their academic goals.

WHEN TO REFER

If you have previously reached out to a student and have not seen positive change, we are here to help! Below are examples of what to refer to the SEA Team.

- Low test scores
- Unexplained excessive absenteeism
- Tardiness (e.g. due to transportation or family concerns)
- Pacing in an online class
- Not doing assignments
- External or financial concerns

HOW TO REFER

- Intranet > Faculty Advising > Shoreline Early Alert
- Canvas
- Advisor Data Portal (ADP)

Questions?

If you would like to learn more about SEA, visit our webpage or contact one of our SEA Team members.

intranet.shoreline.edu/sea/

Jennifer Coogan, Associate Dean of Advising
206-546-4603 | jcougan@shoreline.edu

Erin Wilson, Online Student Success Coach
206-546-6956 | erinwilson@shoreline.edu

Nicki Sunwall, Student Success Coach
206-546-4542 | nsunwall@shoreline.edu

Lianne Almughirah, Asst. Dir., International Student Success
206-533-6664 | lalmughirah@shoreline.edu